Define in one sentence who is part of Placer Agriculture?

Placer Agriculture is food that is grown in Placer County, and the people who grow it. a great group of producers that know what they grow and why - they grow it for them selves and are loving to share their harvest Those who provide our community with quality food, and keep our Placer County lanscape a place to see, visit, and experience. Farmers, ranchers, government, supporting businesses, farmers markets, general population, restaurants, stores that market local food. I dont understand what you are trying to get at with this question. Placer agriculture includes large and small producers, r ...
